THE PRINCE RECEIVED

Reception to Him at Washington
Never Before Excelled.

TAKES IN CAPITOL.

Visits the House, Witnesses the Vote
on the Philippine Bill in the Senate and Dined With President Roosevelt.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Rarely in its history has the white house been the scene of a more brilliant spectacle than Monday when President Roosevelt welcomed to the United States Prince Henry of Prussia. Ever since the announcement was made that the prince would visit this country the arrangements for his reception have been the subject of frequent discussion at the meetings of the cabinet, and details of the plans for the entertainment and comfort of the royal visitor have constantly been referred to the president for suggestion or approval. It has been the president's wish that, avoiding all ostentation, the prince be given a cordial welcome. So far as federal authority controls in the matter, that plan has been carried out. The prince has met the president, and nothing could have been more cordial and friendly than the president's greeting, which was returned later in the day by Prince Henry in full measure.

Prince Henry took luncheon with the German ambassador and the members of his staff at 1 p. m. Prince Henry occupied the seat of honor, with Dr. von Holleben sitting opposite. The lunch was confined to the prince's party and the ambassador's of the staff, no American guests being present except the officers forming the honorary escort.

One of the most brilliant functions of the day was at 2 p. m., when Prince Henry received the German embassy, the members of the diplomatic corps including the ambassadors and ministers, accompanied by their staffs of government, naval and civic attaches.

BEAR ADMIRAL PRINCE HENRY.

all in full uniform. The scene as these many diplomatic officers of high rank mingled with princes, admirals, generals and members of many of the noble houses of Europe, was brilliant. The reception of the diplomatic corps lasted about an hour.

Prince Henry in the afternoon not only saw the houses of the American parliament at work, but in the senate he witnessed one of those rare and intensely dramatic moments which come in that body occasionally at the conclusion of a great debate. It was the closing debate and vote on the Philippine bill.

The dinner given to Prince Henry by President Roosevelt at the white house closed the honors bestowed upon the royal visitor by official Washington. The affair was on an elaborate scale and brought together a most distinguished company.

To accommodate the large number of guests the dinner table was set in the east room, the decorations of which were on the most magnificent scale ever attempted.

Shortly before the clock struck 8 Prince Henry arrived with Admiral Evans. At 8 o'clock the guests passed through the blue room where the presentations were made and thence to the east room. President Roosevelt sat at the head of the table with Prince Henry on his right. On his left was Lord Pauncefoot, the British ambassador. Besides the president and the prince those at the dinner included the prince's suite, the diplomatic corps, the cabinet, the president's delegates, Chief Justice Fuller the president pro tem of the senate, Mr. Frye, Speaker Henderson, Hon. J. B. Foraker, Hon. Charles H. Grosvenor, M. C. chairman of the executive committee of the senate and to house and receive Prince Henry: Senators Cullom, Aldrich, Cockrell, Hale, Hanna, Representatives Cannon, Livingston, Foss and Cummings, Lieut. Gen. Miles, Surgeon Gen. Pikey, Hon. William H. Taft, civil governor of the Philippines Islands; Hon. Henry B. F. McFarland, president board of commissioners District of Col.

umbia; Hon. Herbert Putnam, librarian of congress; Hon. S. P. Langley, secretary Smithsonian Institute; Hon. Richard Olney, Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, Hon. Carl Schurz, Hon. C. N. Bliss, Hon. E. O. Wolcott, Hon. T. J. Coolidge, J. Pierpont Morgan, Lewis Cass Ledyard, A. J. Cassatt, Marvin Huggitt, Arthur von Briezen, Prof. Hugo Munstberg, Adolph Busch, Gen. Fred W. Winkler, Clement A. Griscom, Consul General Karl Bueenz and Hon. Frederick W. Holls.

During the dinner the president proposed a toast to the health of the German emperor and the German people.

Following the toast of the president to the German emperor Prince Henry arose and addressing himself to the president, proposed a toast to him and the people of the United States accompanying it with an expression of good will and hope for the continuation of friendly relations between the German and American nations. Then followed Mr. Roosevelt's toast to Prince Henry.

At 10:40 o'clock the party dispersed, the prince leaving directly for the railroad station whence his special train left at midnight for New York city.

The president also left for New York to witness the launching of the yacht Meteor built for the German emperor.

Germany Elated Over Reception.

Berlin, Feb. 25.—The narratives of the reception of Prince Henry at New York and Washington cover one and two pages of the principal German newspapers. No foreign event has ever been reported in the German press with such detail. Everybody here is pleased therat, and court circles are especially gratified by the spontaneous good will manifested, as well as by the size of the organized demonstrations. The editorial articles on this subject are, without exception, kindly.

America is seemingly a rediscovery of these periodicals, judging from the space given up to elementary discourses on American characteristics, history and commercial expansion.

Tinge of Irony in France.

Paris, Feb. 25.—The visit of Prince Henry of Prussia to the United States is attracting here, and there is a tinge of irony in the newspapers' comments which betray some feeling of pique at the enthusiasm of his reception.

Dead Body of a Girl.

Bonham, Tex., Feb. 25.—A foul murder is reported from Mulberry, north of here on Red river. Monday morning hunters found the dead body of a young girl in a hollow tree near the river bank. The dead girl was Lena Pendergrass, 17 years old, a Mexican, who had been making her home with a Mexican farmer named Thurman. She has been missing from the community for several days. An examination of the body showed that she had been dead for some time. The skull was badly crushed. Thurman is in jail here.

Dr. Jones Not Found.

Austin, Feb. 25.—Captain J. T. Brooks of the State Rangers is here from an unsuccessful trip to Mexico in search of Dr. I. J. Jones, formerly of the quarantine department, now under indictment for forgery and embezzlement, growing out of the irregularities in that office. Captain Brooks visited several places where Dr. Jones had preceded him. He went as far south as Coatzacoalcas on the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, where Dr. Jones had been. It is known that from the last mentioned place Dr. Jones went to Guatemala.

Forced Check Caused Arrest.

Menardville, Tex., Feb. 25.—Sam Zetlemeyer, a ranchman of this county, was held up and at the point of a pistol compelled to give a check for $40 on a merchant in this place in favor of one of the robbers. Two men are now in jail. They were arrested while waiting to get the check cashed, Zetlemeyer having followed them to town.

Struck by Lightning.

Paris, Tex., Feb. 25.—While Ira Burrus, an engine helper at the Frisco roundhouse, was working around a locomotive Sunday night he was struck by lightning, which paralyzed his entire right side and affected his sight and hearing. It was thought at first that the shock would prove fatal, but the chances now are that he will recover.

Succeeded in Suiciding.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 25.—Marie Jacoby committed suicide in Juarez, Mex., by hanging herself. One week ago, she shot herself five times, and was sent to the hospital. She was on the road to recovery, when she succeeded in ending her life today.

Thrown by His Horse.

Cameron, Tex., Feb. 25.—While going home from Cameron late Saturday afternoon, the horse which Lee Maddox was riding ran away with him and threw him into a barbed wire fence. He died from the injuries.

Fell Between Cars.

Ardmore, I. T., Feb. 25.—At Davis, Harden Spratt, aged 21 years, was killed by a Santa Fe freight train. It is supposed he fell between cars of the train and was crushed. His parents reside at Davis.

Fancy prices make the things they eat better. This is a very erroneous and expensive notion. Fancy prices are often the result of high rents, clerk hire, etc. If your grocery bill is too large it will pay you to examine our stock of groceries and the low prices we make on them. They are fresh, pure and wholesome. They please our old customers and if you will let us send a trial order we will please you.

FIGHT WITH OUTLAWS.

One of Them Dead, Two Captured and
an Officer Wounded.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 24.—A fight occurred between Oklahoma officers and
the band of outlaws Friday that killed
Sheriffs Smith and Beck at Anadarko
a month ago. As a result one of the outlaws, Walter Swofford, is dead and
Deputy Sheriff W. A. Jones of Asher,
O. T., is seriously wounded.

The snow enabled a posse under Sheriff Milner of Shawnee, O. T., to trail the outlaws to an isolated house
south of Wewoka, I. T. As the posse
approached the outlaws, three in number, came from the house and opened fire. The fire was returned, and for several minutes the battle waged.
Deputy Sheriff Jones was shot by
Swofford, who had opened the fight.
When Jones fell the officers turned
their attention to Swofford, and he was
pierced by several bullets and killed
instantly. After the battle had continued several minutes longer the other
two outlaws, Sam Casey and Bill Watson, surrendered. Watson is said to be a fugitive from Kentucky on a murder charge. Offers of $9000 of rewards for the capture of the three men were out-

AGAINST SCHLEY.

President Decides the Court Decision in His Case Was Just.

Washington, Feb. 21.—President
Roosevelt has handed down his decision in the appeal of Admiral Schley
from the court of inquiry as to the actions of that naval officer before and at the battle of Santiago, and the decision sustains the court's decision.
The president also decides that neither Sampson nor Schley is entitled

the captains of the various warships engaged in the destruction of the Spanish fleet.

Three More States.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The house

ment, Dr. Blunt said he was anxious that the committee take the matter up,
and he would show the committee
where the responsibility lies for the shortage.

Preacher Reduces His Salary.

FIGHT WITH OUTLAWS.

One of Them Dead, Two Captured and
an Officer Wounded.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 24.—A fight occurred between Oklahoma outlaws and
the band of outlaws Friday that killed
Sheriffs Smith and Beck at Anadarko
a month ago. As a result one of the
outlaws, Walter Swofford, is dead and
Deputy Sheriff W. A. Jones of Asher,
O. T., is seriously wounded.

The snow enabled a posse under Sheriff Milner of Shawnee, O. T., to
trail the outlaws to an isolated house
south of Wewoka, I. T. As the posse
approached the outlaws, three in number, came from the house and opened
fire. The fire was returned, and for
several minutes the battle waged.
Deputy Sheriff Jones was shot by
Swofford, who had opened the fight.
When Jones fell the officers turned
their attention to Swofford, and he was
pierced by several bullets and killed
instantly. After the battle had continued several minutes longer the other
two outlaws, Sam Casey and Bill Watson, surrendered. Watson is said to be
a fugitive from Kentucky on a murder

A HEAVY STORM SUNDAY.

Those who took notice of the clouds Sunday afternoon were impressed with the peculiar formation and unusual beauty of a cloud forming towards the western horizon and passing rapidly overhead, extending from the northwest to the southeast. It was long and narrow, with a loaf-shaped top and exquisitely tinted feathery folds and fringe effects beneath, denoting wind and hail. It rose high overhead here with consistively little wind and rain, but no hail.

The damage elsewhere seems to have been considerable. A Navasota special says: "Sunday afternoon, about 6 o'clock, a heavy cornucopia shaped cloud appeared in the west. The cloud divided about where the Brazos and Navasota rivers connect. One-half went down the Brazos and the other half traveled east and finally disappeared. There was much uneasiness here for fear of a cyclone. People from the Brazos bottom this morning say a terrific storm accompanied by much hail, followed the Brazos river for miles, tearing up the trees by roots and dislodging many tenant houses and barns. There is quite a loss in young cattle and sheep by drowning."

Report of the destruction by the north end of the cloud, which appears to have arched over Bryan, were sent from Hearne as follows:

"Several house roofs and smoke stacks were blown off Sunday by the terrific wind storm which raged for some time. It was accompanied by rain and hail and did considerable damage. It is not known what damage was done in surrounding territory, as reports have not been received."
